PHYSICAL EDUCATION INDEPENDENT STUDY PROGRAM

The purpose of the Independent Study Physical Education Program is to provide options for students to engage in alternative pathways for which they can receive physical education credit towards graduation. Independent Study is not intended to be a separate curriculum.

Approved Independent Study Physical Education activities will ensure that students complete and pass the fitness, skill, attitude, content, and participation standards of a balanced physical education programs as defined by the Physical Education Standards for California Schools.

If approved, Independent Study Physical Education will account for one semester or up to one year of Physical Education credit toward graduation from high school. Freshmen and middle school students are not eligible. This is to ensure that all students are exposed to a well-rounded Physical Education curriculum and participate in a series of state-mandated physical performance tests later in ninth grade. The state of California requires two years of high school Physical Education coursework for graduation. This program allows up to one of those years to be taken as Independent Study. Permission is granted one semester at a time. More information regarding Physical Education requirements can be found at the California Department of Education's Physical Education "Frequently Asked Questions" page (<http://www.cde.ca.gov/pd/ca/pe/physeducfaqs.asp>).

Double exemptions for Independent Study Physical Education and athletic team participation are not possible. A student may choose either Independent Study Physical Education or, if eligible, participation on a Piedmont High School sponsored athletic team. A student may choose one or the other during any one semester.

The nature of Independent Study Physical Education is that it allows students to pursue individual interests in long term training programs that create a substantial drain on the student's energies and that add a significant commitment beyond the regular school day. At the same time, it ensures that the student receives the benefits and outcomes of a balanced physical education program.

Independent Study activities should allow students to continue to build individual skills in their area of interest and expertise, and be consistent with the following criteria:

1. The student must maintain academic and departmental standards established by the Activity Code of the school that he/she attends.
2. The student shall provide official documentation of participation. Securing a position in a performing arts program that demands high physical exertion (e.g., dance) also may qualify. The appropriate proof of participation in a professional organization is required.

3. The student's Independent Study activity schedule does not conflict with the student's schedule of school classes.
4. The Independent Study activities will occur under the supervision of an Instructor/Coach who has the appropriate training and expertise to provide the level of instruction required for the activity. The Instructor/Coach will maintain contact as asked with the PUSD school representative.
5. The activity involves skill improvement sessions 5 - 6 days per week.
6. Student practices/trains an average of 15 hours per week in the Independent Study Activities under appropriate supervision of a qualified Instructor/Coach (including practices/rehearsals, games/events, and travel).
7. It can be clearly demonstrated that the Physical Education standards for the grade level can be met through the activity.
