

Spanish Speaking Artist Project

Artcyclopedia: clicking on the section “browse artists by nationality” brings you to a list of artists by national origin.

<http://www.artcyclopedia.com/>

Online Picasso Project

<http://www.tamu.edu/mocl/picasso>

Pablo Picasso from the Guggenheim Museum

http://www.guggenheimcollection.org/site/artist_works_126_0.html

The Virtual Diego Rivera Web Museum

<http://www.diegorivera.com/index.php>

Online Goya Exhibition

http://goya.unizar.es/InfoGoya/MainMenu_en.html

Salvador Dali Museum

<http://www.salvordalimuseum.org/collection/index.php>

Joan Miro

<http://www.sorokko.com/artists/Miro.html>

Wilfredo Lam

http://www.guggenheimcollection.org/site/artist_works_83_0.html

The Museo de Arte Contemporaneo Esteban Vicente

<http://www.museoestebanvicente.es/eng/museoflash.asp>

Art Museum of the Americas: exhibitions of contemporary Latin American artists

<http://www.museum.oas.org/index.html>

Art in Context Center for Communication:

<http://www.artincontext.org/index.htm>

Follow these clicks:

- Images
- By period, term, nationality
- Latin American (or any others)

Gaudi and Art Nouveau in Catalonia

<http://www.gaudiandgaudi.com/E0000.htm>

Tips for finding biographical information: Use our subscription online databases (Encyclopedia Britannica and Gale Student Resource Center) for well known artists. Try Wikipedia (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Main_Page) for the less well-known artists.